Rox-n-Bull, you've serviced another satisfied VC. Smoke'em if you got 'em. You rock-n-roll.

Thanks Mr. Rorschalk,

The extensive feedback gives me a perspective that I needed! While I know that my science was hand-waving, it seemed necessary. Your other critiques will help me polish up this lump of coal and maybe someday it will rise to the level of sandstone!

I appreciate your time, Barney Sperlin
